Description

Ordering a sample t-shirt – or more than one – is really the best way to review our products. We love helping you make sure that you'll be happy with your final order when all is said and done. Keep in mind, you have the ability to order by size and style, but a random print / dye sample will be chosen based on availability. You may notice a minor print/dye defect, but samples that we send out will always be of first quality t-shirt construction and fabric.
